First Time at Adyar Cafe? Here Is What to Know

Adyar Cafe sits on Lincoln Highway in Exton, PA, and serves 100% pure vegetarian South Indian cuisine. The space is calm, the staff is warm, and the food is prepared fresh for every single order. It is not fast food — it is real cooking, done right.

Dishes on the Adyar Cafe Menu Worth Ordering Today

The menu is wide without being overwhelming. It covers everything from traditional South Indian staples to fusion café plates — all vegetarian, all full of flavour.

Go-To Plates for First-Time Visitors

- Rava Dosa – thin, crispy, and best paired with coconut chutney
- Medhu Vadai – crunchy lentil fritters that disappear fast
- Lunch Thali – a full South Indian meal in one single tray
- Podi Idli – soft steamed idlis rolled in roasted spiced lentil powder

For the Adventurous Eater

- Dragon Mushroom – crispy mushrooms with a bold Indo-Chinese kick
- Mango Puli Kulambu – tangy tamarind curry with raw mango that hits just right
- Appam with Vegetable Stew – lacy rice pancakes soaked in coconut stew
- Karuvepaku Gobi Fry – cauliflower fried with curry leaves and South Indian spices

The Weekend Breakfast at Adyar Cafe Is a Different Experience

Every Saturday and Sunday from 8:30 AM to 10:30 AM, the café transforms into a breakfast haven. Uttapam, alu bhonda, chola puri, and masala cutting chai make this the most talked-about morning meal in Exton. Come early — it fills up fast.
